

Houston Galveston Institute
Presents

Parenting Coordination: Texas Model for Collaborative Systems

HOUSTON TRAININGS:
November 1-3, 2007

Location:
University of St. Thomas
3800 Montrose Blvd.
Houston, TX 77006

24 CE Hours
(Includes: 3 Hours Ethics &
8 Hours Family Violence)

Facilitators

Dr. Lynelle C. Yingling, LMFT, an experienced professor of Family Studies, Marriage & Family Therapy, Research, & Family Mediation for over 20 years, has been in private clinical practice and consultant training in Family Therapy & Family Mediation since 1984. Dr. Yingling is an active participant in drafting and testifying for the Family Counseling statute in 1997 and the Parenting Coordination statute in 2005.

Gay Cox, JD, Board Certified in Family Law since 1984, received a BS in Psychology and Social Work from Abilene Christian and a JD from SMU School of Law. Her practice focuses on collaborative family law and family mediation, areas in which she frequently trains, lectures and publishes. She is an active participant in the drive to adopt the Parenting Coordination statute.

The Houston Galveston Institute is a non-profit organization providing therapeutic and consulting services for over 25 years. Therapists at HGI believe in using the resources and strengths already present in our clients and their family systems in partnerships that help people achieve their goals and imagine new ones. We believe change can occur in many ways and that it is possible to have fun in the process.

Registration Form

Send to: 3316 Mount Vernon • Houston • Texas 77006 • 713-526-8390 • 713-528-2618 fax www.talkhgi.com • admin@talkhgi.com

Class enrolling for: _____
_____ November 1-3, 2007 [Houston]

Name: _____ Email: _____

Address: _____ City, State, Zip: _____

Phone (H): _____ (O): _____

Cell: _____ Fax: _____

Professional Identity: _____

Payment Amount: $ _____ By: Check or Visa/MC # _____
Exp. Date: _____ Signature: _____ Use Community Membership Coupon

Our last training sold out!
Register now and reserve your place

Special Features

- Comprehensive training that includes: legal, mediation, family therapy, parent education, family violence screening, and ethics as a framework for defining the parenting coordinator blended role
- Controlled size to facilitate interactive learning environment, including skills practice
- Family systems theoretical foundation
- Based on Texas law
- Comprehensive training manual included

Who can be a Parenting Coordinator?

A) Those with a Bachelor's degree with a Mental Health emphasis and who have taken at least 16 hrs of parenting coordination training, OR

B) Those who have a graduate degree in a mental health profession with an emphasis on family and children's issues.

8 hrs training in family violence is required for all parenting coordinators and is included in this training.

Schedule & Room Locations:

Thursday, Nov. 1st, 12pm-9pm

(buffet lunch @ 11:45):

University of St. Thomas – The Crooker Building
Ahern Room (1st floor)

Friday, 9am-6pm & Saturday, 9am-6pm

(lunch on your own)

University of St. Thomas – The Crooker Building
C.O.C. Room (2nd floor)

Campus Map:

http://www.stthom.edu/Visitors_Community/Maps_Directions.aqf

Training Objectives

- Understand the role of the parenting coordinator
- Develop parenting plans and practice parenting coordination in compliance with Texas Family Code
- Better understand the co-parenting process and the emotional needs of parents and children
- Practice screening and appropriately responding to family violence using a national model
- Explore the ethical challenges of working in an interdisciplinary context

CEs and Fees

24 hrs mental health CE, including 16 hrs parenting coordination training, 8 hrs family violence & 3 hrs ethics

$375—received before Oct. 18th, 2007

$395— received on or after Oct. 18th, 2007

Cost includes manual, Thursday buffet lunch, and snacks.

Houston Galveston Institute is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. The Institute maintains responsibility for the program and its content. Houston Galveston Institute is preapproved by AAMFT, Texas LPC, Provider #1263, TAMFT, and by the TAADAC, Provider #06410-91, as a Continuing Education Provider.