

Harlene Anderson presents
Spring 2010 Supervision Refresher Course

Supervising Marriage and Family Therapists and other Clinicians in Private Practice, University and Clinic Settings

Sponsor: Houston Galveston Institute

Faculty: Harlene Anderson, Ph.D., LPC, LMFT
AAMFT/TXLMFT/TXLPC Approved Supervisor

Purpose: The course provides a forum for experienced supervisors to enhance their supervision knowledge and skills and to become familiar with current supervision practices, research, and literature. It is designed to meet the requirements of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT) refresher course requirements. The course may be used for continuing education hours.

Focus: The course focuses on practical/clinical, theoretical, legal, ethical, professional, research, and relationship issues related to supervision and supervision mentoring. There is an emphasis on supervision from a postmodern collaborative perspective- drawing on the metaphors of social construction and narrative theories-within the broader context and history of systemic/family therapy theories, including:

- Review of personal philosophy of supervision.
- Review of current supervision literature.
- Review of the pragmatics of supervision, including contracts and record keeping.
- Review of current TXLMFT licensing rules and regulations regarding supervision.
- Review of current AAMFT Approved Supervisor and Approved Supervisor mentor standards.
- Review of the contextual issues of supervision including, TXLMFT and AAMFT, agency and university, on-site and off-site.
- Review of the similarities and differences between clinical supervision, administrative supervision, teaching, consulting, and mentoring.
- Review of diversity issues, including cultural, race, ethnicity, economics, gender and sexual orientation.

Format: A dynamic and intensive didactic and interactive experience based in a collaborative learning community philosophy -- will provide participants an opportunity to meet the learning objectives and to network with other supervisors. The format will include didactic, consultation opportunity, experiential exercises, literature review, and discussions.

Certificate of Completion: A certificate of completion will be provided by the Houston Galveston Institute.

Who Should Attend: Approved Supervisors looking to enhance their supervision knowledge and skills.
